

Maritime Professional

Ad Closing:
August 1, 2011

The Essential Quarterly Magazine

• Q3 Edition Security and Training

The American Employment Perspective:

Shortsea shipping, wind power and the future of the bluewater Jones Act fleet.

Security Training:

Beyond ISPS

Port Security:

Infrastructure & economics.

TWIC:

Are we any closer to using these credentials? Do they provide any security?

STCW After 50:

Cutting-edge training that (actually) produces better mariners.

Piracy:

The good, the bad and the ugly- what will work, what won't, and why.

Ship Management:

Taking back the ship from the office.

Mariner Retention:

Still important even in a down shipping market.

Shipboard eLearning:

Can it work, and if so- is it affordable?

Services & Product Directory:

Security services, training, equipment

Special Directory: Maritime and Professional Training

Compiling the leading companies and institutions that are keeping personnel up-to-date, providing the necessary skills, licences, and certifications.

Reach an audience of 18,919 global high-level subscribers

Bonus Distribution:

October 4-6, 2011
Rio de Janeiro, Brasil

For media information, contact: Rhoda Morgan 212-477-6700

morgan@marinelink.com